

Are You Passionate About Golf And Making It Accessible To Everyone?

COACH TRAINING WORKSHOP

Featuring Presenters: David Windsor, PGA/GSGA Adaptive Golf Director and Jonathan Snyder, USGA Executive Director

Saturday, April 25 • 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

BFF Journeys Adaptive Golf Coach Training is designed for golf professionals, instructors, therapists, coaches, and volunteers who want to confidently and safely teach golf to individuals with unique abilities. Through our partnership with experienced adaptive golf instructors from Adaptive Golf Academy, this comprehensive, hands-on, in-person Coach Training Workshop equips coaches with tools, techniques, and knowledge needed to lead effective adaptive golf programs. The immersive experience combines classroom education with on-course application.

You'll gain practical knowledge in adapting instruction, modifying equipment, adjusting swing techniques, and creating a safe and empowering learning environment designed to meet each golfer where they are and help them grow. Expand your impact and become part of a growing movement in inclusive sports!

This training prepares you to confidently teach golfers with:

- Mobility Limitations and Physical Rehabilitation Needs
- Autism and Down Syndrome Disorders
- Limb Loss or Amputations
- Developmental and Cognitive Challenges
- PTSD and Trauma-Related Conditions
- Neurological Conditions

Proudly hosted in Findlay at:
